

PROGRAM

5th Annual Louise Daniel Women's History Lecture and Luncheon

Friday, August 22, 2014

Recognizing

Women Elected Officials in the Texas Panhandle

Welcome and Special Announcement

Paul Matney, Ph.D., Immediate Past President

Amarillo College

Introductions

Beth Duke, Executive Director

Center City—Amarillo Executive Women

The Occasion

Claudia Stravato, Professor, Political Science

West Texas A&M University

Remembrance

Monica Terrell, Former Student of Louise Daniel

Introduction of Speaker

Mercy Murquia, Potter County Commissioner

Guest Speaker

Nancy Baker Jones, Ph.D.

President, Board of Directors

Ruthe Winegarten Foundation for Texas Women's History

Topic

"Winning the Vote and Voting to Win: Texas Women and Politics"

Door Prize and Raffle Drawing

Marilyn Van Petten

Closing Remarks

Rose Lee Powell, President

Amarillo League of Women Voters

A nature photograph by Louise Daniel will be raffled today for $10 per ticket or $25 for three. All proceeds benefit the Louise Daniel Women's History Lecture Fund at the Amarillo College Foundation. Nancy Baker Jones has donated a book to be gifted as a door prize. Table flowers may be taken home for a suggested $10.00 donation

Louise Daniel Women's History Lecture and Luncheon

SPONSORS

Amarillo College Foundation
Amarillo Executive Women
Amarillo Women's Forum
Amarillo Women's Network
American Association of University Women
Downtown Courtyard by Marriott
Beth Duke
League of Women Voters
West Texas A&M Foundation
West Texas A&M Mortar Board, Scribes Chapter

STEERING COMMITTEE

Carol Autry	Janette Kelley
Elizabeth Clark, Ph.D.	Kay McMinn
Susan Coleman, Esq.	Rose Lee Powell
Beth Duke	Claudia Stravato
Lou Ann Garrett	Monica Terrell
Jane Harlan	Marilyn Van Petten

Speaker Biography

Nancy Baker Jones, Ph.D., is president of the Ruthe Winegarten Foundation for Texas Women's History and general editor for the Women in Texas History Series, TAMU Press. Jones and Winegarten wrote Capitol Women: Texas Female Legislators 1923-1999, published by the University of Texas Press in 2000 and winner of the Liz Carpenter Award from the Texas State Historical Association. With Fane Downs, she edited Women & Texas History: Selected Essays, was research director for The New Handbook of Texas, and has taught women's history in the New College at St. Edward's University in Austin.

(From the Women in Texas History website at <http://www.womenintexashistory.org/about-us/with/>).